Perhaps you've noticed our new "Clergy Parking Only" sign. Just to clarify... Fr. Busch did not request this sign! It was installed as a surprise while he was out of town and it is intended not just for him, but also for our parish's deacons and any visiting bishops, priests, or deacons who may be here to assist with Masses, confessions, weddings, baptisms, or other special events or liturgies. Thanks for understanding the need for a spot close to the church for clergy who may be arriving after many of the parking spots already have been filled!

Music at St. Ann's

We are seeking additional singers for our choir! We are especially in need of male voices. Our hope is for the St. Ann's Choir to be second to none in our diocese, but in order to realize that goal, we need many more parishioners to join us as we "make a joyful noise unto the Lord!" (Ps 98:4 and Ps 100:1)

Choir practice is held in the church each Thursday evening at 6:30 p.m. This year, we want to include more choral anthems in our Sunday liturgies, offer a couple of seasonal Choral Evensong liturgies, and plan for a Festival of Lessons and Carols during Advent. But we can only do that with your help and participation! There's room for everybody in our parish choir, so please give it a try. And remember, our choir is not just for Christmas and Holy Week anymore! We are a year-round ministry!

This is the first edition of our parish's new monthly newsletter.
Please save this August newsletter for future reference, since some of this information will not be repeated in the weekly bulletin.
